EARLY ACCORD FOR BRITAIN AND ITALY BELIEVED ASSURED

POLAND AND LITHUANIA PLAN RESUMPTION OF FRIENDLY RELATIONS

By The Associated Press

The world's wars surged today but Europe's rumor of new wars slackened.

Predictions of an early British-Italian accord became a splash of cheerful color on the European panorama after two hectic weeks of anxious, somber retouching and repainting.

Informed persons in Rome predicted the British-Italian accord would be concluded by Saturday to include these provisions:

British support for League of Nations recognition of the Italian conquest of Ethiopia; withdrawal of all Italian combatants from the Spanish civil war; absolute withdrawal of Italian forces from the Balearic Islands.

Poland and Lithuania, near armed conflict last week, planned to patch up an old railway line so they could resume friendly communication, non-existent for nearly 18 years.

There were rumblings of discord in Lithuania, however, with two cabinet members tendering resignations and students calling a 10-day period of mourning over the capitulation to Poland's army-backed demand for normal diplomatic and commercial relations.

Germany, still digesting Austria, informed the League of Nations that her new province "no longer is considered" a member of the league.

A mysterious roundup of soviet citizens was underway in Russia apparently an effort to isolate the suspicious regime from unwanted foreign contacts. Recent disappearances and arrests included a secretary of the Moscow office of the New York Times and several Russian employees of the United States embassy.

The Spanish insurgents, straightening out their front for another change toward the south against stiffening government resistance, occupied a triangular piece of territory south of Alcañiz.

In China, Japanese assault troops failed to crack Chinese defenses along the ancient grand canal at miles north of Suowu, rail center and the key to domination of the Chinese central front.

If the Japanese can grab it.

The push on Suowu from the north along the Tientsin-Pukow railway went into its second week with heavy losses on both sides.

Policy Settlement Soon.

LONDON, March 21.—(AP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain announced in the House of Commons today he would make an eagerly awaited statement of British foreign policy on Thursday—presumably an announcement of what Britain would do if Germany were to invade Czechoslovakia.

TAX EXPERT OF U. S. CHAMBER COMMERCE SEES TROUBLE AHEAD

THREE BILLION RELIEF INCREASE AND BILLION REVENUE LOSS FORECAST

WASHINGTON, March 21.—(AP)—A tax expert of the United States Chamber of Commerce forecast a three billion dollar increase in federal relief costs and a billion loss in estimated revenue today unless the Ellsworth C. Alvord tax bill pending before the senate finance committee.

"Industry must be unshackled. Fears of vindictive taxation must be removed. The use of our tax system as an experimental laboratory must be abandoned."

The chamber's witness, a former treasury employee, said the house committee made decided improvements in existing tax laws but "didn't go far enough."

Alvord asked complete abandonment of the "unsubstantiated profits" theory, saying "the present law drives capital into tax exempts and prevents its investment in new enterprises."

He recommended:

1. A maximum rate of 15 per cent on incomes of corporations, with lower graduated rates for those with an income of $25,000 or less.
2. A maximum 12 1/2 per cent rate on capital gains, or rates graduated from 15 to 5 per cent over a ten-year period.
3. A maximum individual surtax rate of 40 per cent instead of the present 75 per cent.
4. Retroactive removal of "a few of the most glaring mistakes of the undistributed corporate law."

These changes, Alvord said, risked a possible revenue loss of not more than $300,000,000 according to treasury estimates, while promising to stimulate industry greatly.

"The way to make money, gentlemen, is to put your kiddy will pick it up," he said.

Chairman Harrison (D-Miss.) openly voiced his opinion to including processing taxes in the bill.

F. E. Molin of Denver, appeared before the committee, asked whether members "are considering processing taxes."

"I hope we're not," Harrison interrupted bluntly.

Harrison explained that if the committee at a closed session decided to include processing taxes or farm products that all interested witnesses would be given a chance to be heard.

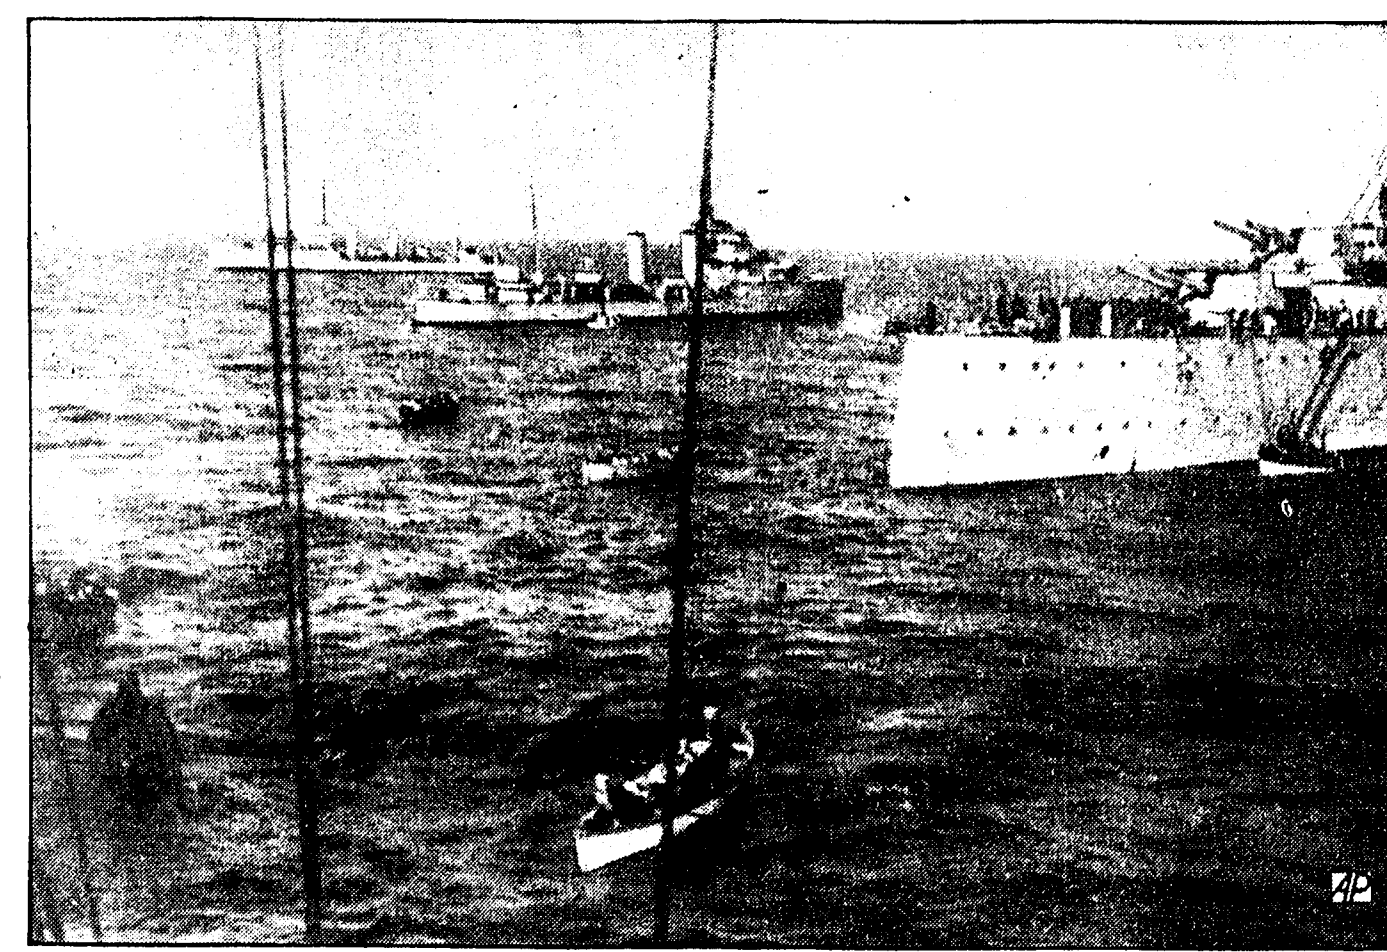

Senator Pope (D-Idaho) has offered a proposed amendment to the tax bill calling for a series of tariff-equalization fees on wheat, cotton, tobacco, rice and synthetic fibers.

These are similar to processing taxes, Pope explained, and are aimed at producing $212,000,000 in additional funds for payments to farmers under the new farm program.

The 75 per cent maximum surtax on large individual incomes now applied to net incomes of more than $5,000,000 a year. Chairman Harrison (D-Miss.) of the senate finance committee.

BRITISH PICK UP SAILORS AFTER SPANISH INSURGENT CRUISER IS SUNK

The bombs and torpedoes have done their work; nothing remains of the Spanish insurgent cruiser Baleares but a patch of oil on the Mediterranean and this picture shows British and Spanish boats doing rescue work. In the rear, H. M. S. Brilliant, which came up late, stands by. In the center is the destroyer Boreas; at the right the Canarias, an insurgent cruiser, and the small boats are loaded with Baleares survivors. Two hundred of the 600 aboard were saved after the ship was sunk March 6 off the coast of Spain.

ALLRED DECLARES HE WILL REMAIN ALOOF IN COMING CAMPAIGN

STATEMENT LEAVES MCRAW AND THOMPSON CHIEF BIDDERS FOR PLACE

AUSTIN, March 21.—(AP)—Gov. James V. Allred, who formally swore the coming gubernatorial campaign in a radio speech from the governor's mansion Saturday night, wrapped in silence today any political plans he may be making for the future.

He said he would retire to the private practice of law in Austin, but it was generally believed he did not intend to remain permanently aloof from the field of public service.

It pained him to pass up the fight, he admitted "of course, it is in my nature to feel the tingling desire for political conflict x x x."

He also placed himself on call. "In the future, should the occasion arise, I shall always stand ready to serve the state I love."

Allred's decision left Ernest Thompson, railroad commissioner, and William McCraw, attorney general, in the generally-accepted roles of chief bidders for his job.

The tradition that no governor serves a third term had much to do, of course, with Allred's preference for private life, but as other and principal reasons he cited:

He was in debt and had to provide for the welfare of his family.

His participation would mean the bitterest campaign "Texas has ever known."

Physical and Mental Strain.

The enormity of the "tax" on physical and mental strength, the strain of "sine, sander and ass" in the heat of campaigns, and constant "bugging."

Allred will remain out of political battles, some observers said, because there simply is no office for him to seek other than his own present post of its third-term tradition obstacle.

It has been rumored he might try for the United States senate in 1940 against Senator Tom Connally, who will be up for reelection, or that he might be tendered a federal judgeship.

A new South Texas judgeship is provided in a bill passed by the house of representatives and favorably reported by the judiciary committee.

Allred, however, said nothing on the subject, but haven't anything to add to my statement of Saturday night. I think it is clear" was all that could be drawn from him.

ADMINISTRATION'S BILLION DOLLAR BILL NOW GOES TO SENATE

MANY NEW WAR VESSELS AND NEARLY THOUSAND AIRPLANES AUTHORIZED

WASHINGTON, Mar 21.—(AP)—The house approved overwhelmingly today the administration's billion-dollar naval expansion bill.

Speaker Bankhead announced the roll call vote for passage was 292 to 100.

Final passage came after defeat of the republican attempt to send the bill back to the house naval committee with instructions to eliminate the provision for three new battleships. The bill now goes to the senate.

The measure authorizes construction of 44 new warships, 22 auxiliary vessels and 950 airplanes which President Roosevelt said were needed "specifically and solely because of the piling up of additional land and sea armaments in other countries."

The recommitment motion, offered by Representative Church (R-Ill.), a member of the naval committee who has opposed the program since its introduction, was defeated by a vote announced by Speaker Bankhead as 275 to 114.

The new warships, estimated to cost $741,905,000, include three battleships, two aircraft carriers, nine cruisers, 23 destroyers and nine submarines.

The 22 auxiliary vessels, include five destroyer tenders, three submarine tenders, 11 seaplane tenders and three naval ships. They could cost approximately $246,451,000.

Officials estimated the 950 airplanes, which would give the navy a minimum of 3,000 planes, would cost $106,000,000.

The bill also authorized the navy to spend $30,000,000 in connection with small, swift "mystery" ships, aircraft, bombs, torpedoes and other devices of war. A fund of $3,000,000 was earmarked for construction of an airship to replace the Los Angeles and with which the navy would be able to experiment with dirigibles as aircraft carriers.

McKinney Man Is Drowned in Creek

MCKINNEY, March 21.—(AP)—The body of G. H. Fritz, 40, McKinney man who disappeared while fishing with a party yesterday afternoon, was recovered from Pilot creek early today.

Members of the fishing party said Fritz moved downstream from them and when he failed to return they began a search. Officers dragged the creek ten hours before the body was found.

The widow and two children, Alfred and Bernice, survive.

WITH SPRING HERE STATE PARKS READY MILLION VISITORS

VARIOUS TYPES OF RECREATION PROVIDED FOR IN NINETEEN STATE PARKS

AUSTIN, March 21.—(AP)—Birth of spring today will accentuate the lure of the great outdoors and the state parks board estimated more than 1,000,000 persons will visit the various agencies under their care between now and autumn.

W. H. Lawson, board secretary, said inviting picnic grounds, fireplaces and firewood, swimming, horseback riding and other types of recreation can be had at one or another of 19 parks covering nearly 80,000 acres.

Cabins, affording overnight accommodations, have been built by civilian conservation corps workers in a number of the parks, Lawson said. He pointed out all were game sanctuaries with no hunting and only restricted fire permitted.

The only type of expense visitors can expect, Lawson said, is that for services rendered—such as cabin rent. He said a charge would be made for a ton through Lyndon Canyon, 11 miles south-west of Burnet on U. S. Highway 281, a similar but smaller cave than that at Carlsbad, N. M.

Eastrop Park, one mile east of Bastrop, probably will do a booming business again this season Lawson said, calling attention to a count of more than 1,100 visi-

SCRAPPY NEIGHBORS DECIDE NOT TO WAR; PLANNING FOR PEACE

POLAND AND LITHUANIA TO REHABILITATE RAIL LINE FOR FUTURE

WARSAW, Poland, March 21.—(AP)—Poland and Lithuania, deciding to go to war, made plans today to fix up an old railway line so they could resume friendly communication.

The Polish railways ordered work begun at once on repairing the right-of-way of the Wilno-Kaunas line.

The turn from war to peace was accomplished on Saturday by Lithuania's acceptance of Polish demands that communications be resumed and that the two countries exchange diplomatic envoys.

Side by side, the two nations had been at odds since Poland took Wilno, the old Lithuanian capital, 18 years ago.

An exposition of the tasks ahead was expected from Foreign Minister Joseph Beck when he addressed the Polish parliament on Wednesday.

Meanwhile, Polish newspapers reported that Marian Kosciakowski, Polish minister of social welfare, would be named minister to Kaunas, Lithuania, as part of the friendship agreement. He is a Lithuanian by birth.

The war scare over, most newspaper comment centered around Jews, who were blamed for rioting on Sunday because they allegedly started a run on banks.

The students' Association of Warsaw by resolution demanded that all persons who withdrew their savings should be deprived of citizenship and that the frontier should be closed to Jewish refugees from Austria.

The association's youthful chairman, Boleslaw Jablonski, and 28 other students were taken into custody.

CHAIRMAN MORGAN MUST RECENT OR RESIGN POSITION

TVA BOARD HEAD GIVEN UNTIL 1:30 TUESDAY BY PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, March 21.—(AP)—President Roosevelt gave Chairman Arthur E. Morgan of the Tennessee Valley Authority today the alternative of withdrawing his charges against his TVA colleagues, or tendering his resignation.

The president, at the third White House hearing on "A" internal controversies, gave Morgan until 1:30 p. m. tomorrow to state any reason he thought the president should not take executive action.

(Some congressmen have contended the president is without power to remove the directors of the Tennessee Valley Authority, contending this right is reserved by the act of congress.)

About 22 were taken from the cash registers in the two stores, made up principally of pennies. Entrance to the stores was gained by breaking glass in the front doors.

Chief Nutt reported the man held in the city jail would probably be transferred to county authorities during the afternoon and that the cases would be submitted to the grand jury as soon as it reconvened Tuesday.

Chairman Morgan, who, the president says, has charged his colleagues with dishonesty, malfeasance and bad faith and who has insisted upon a congressional investigation, left the White House at 1:40 p. m.

Will Not Resign.

Ex-Convict Held Connection With School Robberies

Solution of the burglarizing of four Corsicana public schools Sunday night was announced by city officers Monday morning following the arrest of an ex-convict. Chief of Police Bruce Nutt reported the man had made a statement admitting the burglaries and all of the money and papers taken had been recovered.

The schools entered included the Stephen F. Austin on First Avenue, the Sam Houston, Junior High, and Robert E. Lee buildings. Entrance was gained by breaking a window near the catch, and about $23.50 was secured in money in the four places.

The man held in the city jail was arrested early Monday morning by city officers before the burglaries had been discovered.

Officers were also investigating the burglarizing of the A. and P. Grocery and Boyd Brothers grocery on West Fifth avenue between 5 and 6 a. m. Sunday.

About $2 was taken from the cash registers in the two stores, made up principally of pennies. Entrance to the stores was gained by breaking glass in the front doors.

Chief Nutt reported the man held in the city jail would probably be transferred to county authorities during the afternoon and that the cases would be submitted to the grand jury as soon as it reconvened Tuesday.

CORSICANA DELEGATION ACTIVE AT ANNUAL SESSIONS IN HOUSTON

By PAUL MOORE

Daily Sun Staff

HOUSTON, March 21.—With the opening of the business session of the Texas Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. and Rebekah Assembly of Texas here Monday afternoon, Corsicana was receiving considerable attention on the proposals to be submitted.

Two propositions will be presented—one for the consolidation of the I. O. O. F. Home school with that of Corsicana, and the other the offer to the Grand Lodge of the Odd Fellows Building free for a period of ten years as the offices for Grand Secretary S. M. Williams and other Odd Fellow officials. This offer is made by Corsicana Lodge No. 63.

Considerable favorable comment was heard Sunday and this morning among the delegates and members about the hotel lobby, C. A. Wheeler, a former high judge, representative to sovereign grand lodge, and past grand master of the grand lodge, of Austin, was outspoken in favor of the proposals, as were scores of others ranking high in the Odd Fellow circles.

SEVERAL LARGE "IFS" IN WAY NATIONAL RAIL CONSOLIDATION THAT WOULD EFFECT BIG SAVING

By THOMAS E. FLANAGAN

WASHINGTON, March 21.—(AP)—Several large "ifs" spike the track that leads to national railroad consolidation, observers of the White House railroad studies said today.

Although government officials and railroad executives who favor consolidation believe $600,000,000 could be saved every year through combining routes and systems, they admit the job would be difficult.

Personal pride—an intangible factor—is not the least obstacle to working out the solution, observers said.

Veteran rail executives would be unlikely to take kindly to losing their jobs or being absorbed into larger networks.

Another stumbling block would be providing work for rail employees who would lose jobs through consolidations.

The Association of American Railroads estimates operating and non-operating workers at about 1,000,000.

Government estimates indicate 200,000 to 400,000 might be forced out of work.

A third problem would be working out valuations of properties so that each system would get a fair return. And more difficult than working out ratios, some observers say, would be the job of getting interested parties to agree on the financial details of consolidation.

Farm interests and shippers doubtless will make themselves heard. Numerous protests are expected from communities which would stand to lose train service.

Regardless of all these difficulties, some government analysts think consolidation will be pushed through, though not at this session of congress.

President Roosevelt has asked three members of the Interstate Commerce commission to tell him Thursday what action congress should take immediately to help the railroads meet their financial problems.

HITLER REPORTED BE CASTING ANGRY GLANCES AT BRAZIL

MEASURES AGAINST GERMAN IN BRAZIL MAY BRING NAZI ACTION SOON

BERLIN, March 21.—(AP)—The German foreign office organ indicated today that Adolf Hitler in his role of protector of Germans abroad, was casting angry glances in the direction of Brazil.

Deutsche Diplomatische-Politik-Schau, a German newspaper, expressed a chagrin that the government of President Getulio Vargas was not showing a strong hand in suppressing anti-German measures in the outlying states. The publication said Germany had warmly welcomed Vargas' inauguration of a totalitarian regime last Nov. 10.

(Vargas recently rejected German demands for the evacuation of their racial culture and build up their organization unhindered.)

WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST TO RELINQUISH ACTIVE MANAGEMENT OF HIS FAR-FLUNG INTERESTS

LARGEST CROP OF COTTON PRODUCED BY UNITED STATES

NEARLY NINETEEN MILLION EQUIVALENT FIVE HUNDRED POUND BALES PRODUCED

NEW YORK, March 21.—(AP)—William Randolph Hearst, 75, and "consensus of the uncertainties of life," is relinquishing active business management of his vast publishing and financial holdings.

The publisher has appointed Clarence J. Shearn, former New York supreme court justice and for years his personal attorney and political protege, to reorganize and consolidate his ramified business interests.

In his new post Shearn will act as voting trustee of the publisher's stock in American Newspapers, Inc., parent holding company for the Hearst enterprises.

R. J. White, chairman of the executive committee of American Newspapers, Inc., said that Shearn and a committee of Hearst executives chosen by the publisher last October would carry out Hearst's wish "to place a more permanent basis a comprehensive plan of management for all of his varied enterprises—newspapers, magazines, art objects, mines, ranches and real estate."

Hearst, according to Poor's Manual for 1937, owns 95 per cent of the stock of his chief holding company and is trustee for the rest. Under the reorganization plans, a statement by White said, the publisher and his family "retain their beneficial interest in the stock."

White said the Hearst publications employed 27,000 persons and consisted of 23 newspapers, "The American Weekly," nine magazines in this country and three in England.

He said the executive committee would direct its primary attention to the publication of newspapers and magazines and follow "a policy of gradual liquidation" as to the publisher's collateral and unrelated investments.

Announcement was made several weeks ago that the Hearst

WASHINGTON, March 21.—(AP)—The census bureau reported today final ginning figures of the 1937 cotton crop, placing production at 18,211,726 running bales, or 18,934,153 equivalent 50-pound bales, exclusive of lint.

The crop is the largest ever produced. It compared with 12,395,882 equivalent 50-pound bales in the 1936 crop, 10,638,391 bales in the 1935 crop, and 14,667,000 bales, the five-year (1928-32) average.

Heretofore the record was 17,978,000 bales, produced in 1926.

The department of agriculture in its final estimate of the crop in December placed indicated production at 18,746,000 equivalent 50 pound bales.

Round bales, counted as half bales, included in the figures totaled 326,424, compared with 282,262 for 1936, and 294,253 for 1935.

American-Egyptian cotton included totaled 10,968 bales, compared with 17,551 for 1936, and 17,631 for 1935.

Included in the total were 59,331 bales which growers estimated would be turned out after the March canvass.

The gross weight of the bale for the crop, counting round as half bales and excluding lint, is 519.0 pounds, compared with 510.6

News of County Home Demonstration Clubs

The Powell Club, Home Demonstration Club met Friday, March 18, with Mrs. Fred Ellett and Mrs. Tom Kenner. Twenty members and one visitor were present.

Miss Reltiger explained several ways of making the kitchen more pleasing. Chose colors are suitable for the room. If the room is dark, light colors should be used. In painting the ceiling, walls and floor use semi-gloss paint. If a covering is used on the floor, it should be the best heavy-weight linoleum so that it will be easier on the feet.

Brockelhurst Pays For Three Deaths In Electric Chair

TUCKER FARM, Ark., March 18.—(P)—Lester Brockelhurst, 24-year-old confessed hitch-hiking killer, was electrocuted today protesting his crimes did not warrant the death penalty.

Brockelhurst was convicted of the hitch-hiking slaying last May of Victor A. Gates, Little Rock landowner. He was arrested in New York State a few days after the Gates killing on a minor traffic law violation, together with his sweetheart, Bernice Felton of Rockford, Ill. He confessed killing Gates, Albin Theander at Rockford and Jack Griffith at Fort Worth, Tex., during a hitch-hiking tour across 18 states.

He was placed in the electric chair shortly after sun-up.

"I did not merit the electric chair," said the one-time Sunday school teacher of Galesburg, Ill. Brockelhurst made a 12-minute statement after being strapped in the chair.

At its conclusion, two charges of electricity were applied, the first at 8:37 a. m.

In his final statement, Brockelhurst spoke with bitterness of his romance with the Rockford girl who accompanied him on his hitchhiking tour and who was acquitted of a charge of murder after Brockelhurst had been convicted at Lonoke, Ark., of the slaying of Gates.

"The only thing that brought me down to this was a light love affair with a girl," he said as he sat in the chair. "I don't want her to get the chair, but she was as guilty as I."

SAYRE ADDRESSED TEXAS COTTON MEN IN DALLAS FRIDAY

RECIPROCAL TRADE AGREEMENTS BEST WAY TO PROTECT FOREIGN MARKETS

DALLAS, March 18.—(P)—Francis E. Sayre, assistant secretary of the American Cotton Association, said today the most practical way to protect and increase their foreign markets is through the international bargaining of reciprocal trade agreements.

Sayre, addressing the annual convention of the Texas Cotton Association, said "foreign trade is a matter almost of life and death for southern farmers and the south as a whole."

"The life of the south is built directly upon foreign markets and foreign purchasing power for American cotton," the state department official said.

"Excessive tariffs strike double injury to our south. They increase the cost of many of the things which southern farmers have to buy."

But the most deadly injury to southern cotton growers wrought by excessive tariffs is loss of foreign markets by reducing foreign purchasing power and lessening the amount of dollar exchange available abroad for the purchase of American cotton. But European nations today need and badly want more American cotton than they do to possess, and because of our excessive tariffs, they cannot obtain by the sale of their goods to the United States, sufficient dollar exchange to pay for what they want.

Corn, Tobacco, Wheat

"In case of corn, tobacco, wheat and rice, the problem is in a sense even more acute. Fortunately for the American cotton grower some of our most important customers for cotton, such as Great Britain and Japan, do not produce cotton themselves, and are so eager to obtain American cotton that trade barriers are not erected specifically to exclude it. But in the case of hog products, tobacco, wheat and rice, the opposite is true.

"But cotton is not all. Other farm products of outstanding importance in the economy of Texas are also dependent upon foreign demand. The importance of foreign markets for wheat and cotton has been obscured during the past several years because of the shortage of domestic supplies due to unprecedented droughts. But now, with the return of abundant crops, it becomes imperative to find export markets for the sale of the surplus amounts of these crops which cannot be sold at home.

Citrus Fruits

"Another important Texas interest is citrus fruits. Record production during the current season has resulted in low prices to producers despite heavier consumption. The total production in this country promises to exceed the total requirements of the American market. Additional foreign markets for citrus fruits must be obtained under the Canadian and other trade agreements; but if the Texas citrus fruit industry is to continue to prosper additional foreign markets must somehow be found.

"What are the practical steps which can be taken for the protection and increase of our foreign markets?"

"Under present day conditions the most practical way to move for increased foreign markets and the elimination of foreign trade discrimination against American exports is by a series of agreements with individual countries to bargain down excessive trade barriers and reciprocally to guarantee each other's trade against discrimination. This is the basis of the American trade agreements program.

Aroused Criticism

"As an example of the care with which every duty reduction is studied before being included in a trade agreement, may I say a word about one of the few concessions which has aroused substantial criticism, namely, the concession on beef cattle weighing over 700 pounds granted in the Canadian trade agreement? The concession was carefully limited so that not more than three-fourths of one per cent of our average annual slaughter of cattle and calves could be shipped from all countries into the United States in any year at the reduced rate. Upon this strictly limited amount, totaling 155,799 head the duty was reduced from 3 to 2 cents a pound, a rate in fact higher than that established by the tariff act of 1922. All other beef cattle of this weight

HITLER DECLARES ABSORPTION AUSTRIA SAVED MANY LIVES

FUEHRER TAKES OCCASION TO REASSURE ITALY AGAINST AGGRESSION

BERLIN, March 18.—(P)—Adolf Hitler tonight declared to Germany and the world that his absorption of Austria into the German realm had "saved thousands of lives."

The fuhrer said "it is a pity that the democracies do not understand" why and how he added Austria to the German nation.

"Behind me are 75,000,000 people," he shouted. "Before me stands Germany's armed might."

He took occasion to allay Italian fears that Germany's advance to the Brenner Pass menaces Italy. Thanking Premier Mussolini for his attitude toward the coup, Hitler said:

"Italy's frontiers remain for us inviolate. Behind this word stands the German nation."

Addressing the reichstag in the Kroll opera house, the fuhrer began his speech at 8:30 p. m. (2:05 p. m. EST) and ended 33 minutes later.

BERLIN, March 18.—(P)—Adolf Hitler, back from his absorption of Austria into the German realm, began his speech before the reichstag at 8:05 p. m. (2:05 p. m. EST) tonight.

Before he began Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goerring, president of the reichstag, announced its dissolution and ordered a new election for April 10.

The date is the same as that on which Austrians will vote on a plebiscite on their union with Germany.

"The present session," Goerring said, "is, I suppose, the most noteworthy we have held in the new reich."

"For the first time as guests of the reichstag there are sitting on the government benches the first reichsstaathalter (governor) of Austria and the Austrian government."

Tremendous applause greeted this. Arthur Seyss-Inquart, formerly chancellor, now governor of Austria, and other members of his cabinet had flown from Vienna to attend this session.

Hitler began:

"I have called you together to give you from a deeply moved heart a report of happenings the significance of which is apparent to you all."

"In addition I have to acquaint you with decisions affecting the German people and the reichstag to attend this session."

He went on with a review of the past year's achievements.

Denied Natural Rights

"The only people in Europe," Hitler continued, "who were denied the most natural right of self-determination were the Germans. The World War and its end increased German disunity and seemed to perpetuate on top of all other misfortune the misery of the separation of a most valuable part of the nation from the mother country."

"Instead of Wilson's right of self-determination of peoples, on the basis of which we laid down our arms, there came the brutal violation of the national rights of numerous millions of Germans," Hitler continued.

"Rights which were conceded to the charge of the primitive tribes as self-evident were denied to an old, cultured people of this continent on grounds as untenable as they were offensive."

"There are certain enclosed groups of people in Europe which make it impossible to draw frontiers so that the interests of nationality and of state are served with equal justice. There are, however, state formations in Europe which have such a decided type of intended national injustice that their continued existence is possible only by the application of the most brutal force."

Lodge No. 227 Thursday night conferred the third degree on three candidates for the local lodge. The Ennis degree team, winner of honors in the state-wide contest here last year at the Grand Lodge, will again compete in Houston Monday at the Grand Lodge annual sessions.

An oyster supper was served. W. M. Wilson was presented with a 25-year membership button by H. E. Redden.

Honorary pallbearers will be friends of the family.

SHOOTING CREWS CHECKING ACREAGE IN BAZETTE AREA

Additional indications that Navarro county had not been overlooked as a possible extension of the Tool producing sector were noted Saturday when definite information became available that shooting crews representing one of the major companies had secured permission to check a large block of acreage from the river on west of Bazette.

The acreage is owned by some other major companies and by several Corsicana independent operators. The crews had previously worked the area from Tool southwest to the river.

Observers pointed out that evidently some indications of a possible structure had been obtained in previous shooting or that the crews would not be continued this side of the river. They also pointed out that several of the companies had been reluctant to farm out parts of their extensive holdings in the county.

JUST FOLKS

SERVANT AND MISTRESS
Macnam was tired this morning and complained.
"I'd left the window open and it cooled."
The children woke her, racing up the stairs.
"The noise they make is difficult to hear."
The toast was burned; the coffee growing cold.
Macnam, it seems, does nothing now but scold.
She has no wants; no needs; no tedious tasks.
Her husband gladly gives her all she asks;
I know the children; put away their toys;
But she it is who grumbles at their noise.
I sing while working with my dusting pan
And she it is who wonders that I can.

JAPAN DIVIDED

Japanese unity has been exaggerated by many outside observers. The unanimity which seemed to prevail at the beginning of the present war is vanishing, and perhaps was never real. The people very likely were swept by a wave of patriotic loyalty when the war began, as they would be in any other country, but their hearts were not in it. As the elections had shown, popular sentiment was liberal, even radical, and had steadily gone against the government. The war seems to have been started largely to distract attention from home troubles and to enforce loyalty.

Now, with the war dragging on much longer than the military leaders promised, casualties rising and costs increasing, both parliament and people seem to be rebelling. Gerold Eckelmann, an expert on Far East affairs, tells news men in New York that there is actual danger of a Communist revolution in Japan, and it is mainly by internal Japanese troubles that China will be saved.

"The situation in Japan," he says, "is curious and perhaps unprecedented in history. The army is trying to set up a dictatorship and has virtually made a fictionhead of the emperor. The navy is opposed to the army. The industrialists don't like either, and may help the workers when the revolution comes."

This view helps to explain the sustained morale of the Chinese government and army in spite of their defeats. And if it is true, or even half true, it suggests that American alarm about the apparent menace of Japanese militarism may be much exaggerated.

GREEK AGAIN

Miss Clara Aggar, Latin teacher in the Ithaca, N. Y. high school, now finds herself teaching Greek grammar again after a period of 15 years during which no course in Greek was given or requested there. The surprising thing about the present revival is that pupils themselves asked for it, although it will not give them high school credit and is not required for their state regents' examinations.

The enterprise of the fourteen ambitious students deserves high praise. Perhaps others will take up their hobby, until Greek is again widely taught, not as a required subject for all pupils alike, but as a truly educational and cultural study for those who know its value and seek its benefits.

If such a movement can start in a public high school, perhaps there is yet hope for the English language and English grammar.

Postmaster-General Farley has announced a complete revision of the regular series of postage stamps, the first since 1922. The new series "will commemorate terms of the presidents in chronological sequence."

Whether this means that the stamps will bear the portraits of the Presidents from George Washington on, as would be assumed ordinarily, it is not clear. The present postmaster has shown an amazing fertility in varying stamp designs, so that it wouldn't be surprising to see the chief executives represented by a

A Good Friend—But Getting Too Close For Comfort

RUSSIAN CONFESSIONS

It would take an Edgar Allen Poe to do justice to those weird confessions at the traitors' trial in Moscow—Poe as the inventor of tales of horror and also Poe as the solver of crime mysteries. In the presence of such testimony as has come from this trial, even more than the evidence in previous wholesale trials of the same type, any normal mind with an American sense of justice is left incredulous and helpless.

Here is a case where the autocrat or autocrats in charge of the Soviet government have gone back as far as 20 years, to the very dawn of the Red revolution, for evidence to convict 21 leaders who have played conspicuous parts in the rise of Bolshevism and the creation of the Soviet Union. Nearly all of these men have been in prison for many months. Most of them show clear signs of broken health, physical or mental, or both. They have evidently been well drilled for their performance.

One of the most remarkable and pitiful witnesses has been Yagoda, former head of the secret police, who himself sent hundreds of Russians to their death—perhaps too many for the present comfort of his masters. Tales told by him regarding the death of Maxim Gorky and others who died years ago, apparently from natural causes, would be laughed out of court by an American jury, in spite of their gruesomeness. The witnesses themselves testify, recant and then withdraw their recantation, evidently under mental stress that it would take a psychologist to explain. Sometimes they act as if drugged or hypnotized.

Here is a nation capable of real greatness, fallen into a state of abject slavery to autocrats who seem determined to eliminate, on whatever pretext, all independent and liberal leadership.

NEW WORLD UNION

It is interesting and rather pleasant to see the republics of Colombia and Domingo sponsoring a plan for a formal "Association of American Nations" to put our neighborhood relations on a more practical basis.

It would establish closer bonds than those of the present Pan-American Union, and it is to be considered at the conference of that body to be held in Lima, Peru, next December. The feeling seems to be growing throughout this hemisphere that in the present state of the world it is desirable for all Americans to snuggle a little more closely together.

The satisfaction of our own statesmen, however, may be modified by another suggestion in the plan referred to, which proposes closer co-operation with the League of Nations at Geneva. The North American tendency is toward a separate New World League of our own.

series of buildings, monuments, landscapes, lodge emblems or astrological symbols of their nativities. This is what comes of having a philatelist for top postmaster and another for chief executive. But the other philatelists, who seem to make a national majority now, don't seem to mind. Some of us may note with regret the passing of the American Indian, the Golden Gate, Niagara Falls, the Statue of Liberty, the Buffalo, the Goddess of Freedom and other familiar engravings, from the northeast corner of our letters. But variety is the spice of correspondence and philately must be served.

MASS FUNERAL FOR SIX CHILDREN WAS PLANNED FRIDAY

CENTER, March 18.—(P)—Sheriff J. B. Sample said Mrs. Little May Curtis, 28, would not be allowed to attend the funeral this afternoon for her six children, whom she is charged with slaying. The sheriff said Mrs. Curtis had asked to attend, but that feeling in the West Hamilton community, 22 miles south of here in a piney woods section was high and he thought it unwise to grant her request.

While the funeral was held near the farm home where the slayings occurred, the Shelby county grand jury prepared to convene tomorrow for action on six murder complaints.
The victims were three boys and three girls ranging in age from 5 to 13. They were shot to death in bed late Tuesday.
Spared among the nine children were a boy who was at his grandfather's home, a married daughter, and a 16-year-old son, Travis, who, Mrs. Curtis said "could take care of himself." She blamed poverty for the act.

District Attorney Wardlaw Lane discounted the poverty theory. Mrs. Curtis was under a five-year suspended sentence for slaying her husband, Robert Curtis, 44, in 1935, when "at the trial she got more attention than she was accustomed to," Lane said.
She went to Houston several weeks ago, she told Lane, for medical attention and there purchased the .22-caliber pistol used in the slayings. The gun was found under the steps of the house.
Sheriff J. B. Sample, summoned by the 16-year-old surviving child, said he found the mother in the woods, 400 yards from the house.

MOTHER TIES SON AND PUSHES HIM IN WELL; SHE DROWNS

CHILD SAVES SELF BY STAND-ING ON BODY OF HIS
DROWNED MOTHER

CENTER, March 18.—(P)—County Attorney N. E. Bailey said today Mrs. Jane Rowland, who drowned her 7-year-old son, Bryant, pushed him into a well and plunged in after him last night. The boy saved his life by standing on his drowned mother's body, Bailey said.

Rowland, who investigated the tragedy late last night on the Campsite school grounds, 10 miles northeast of here, said the investigation was closed and that no inquiry was necessary because a living relative, Bryant, was present when death occurred. Bailey said Mrs. Rowland had been despondent. Bailey said relatives of Mrs. Rowland who discovered the pair missing from their home, were led to the well by the child's cries. The child, Bailey said, told relatives after his rescue on a bucket lowered into the well that his mother took him to the school grounds before 7 o'clock last night and began tying his hands and feet. The child said he screamed but was alone and that he finally stood for three hours on her body until his cries were heard by his mother's aunt, Mrs. Kate Duncan. She was one of a family group which began a search when the mother and child were found missing from a family corn popping party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Bethard, where they resided. Mrs. Rowland was Mrs. Bethard's sister.

Mrs. Rowland's body remained in the well until Tom Sample, son of Sheriff J. B. Sample, arrived with his father and went into the well and tied a rope about the body so it could be raised.

Bailey said Mrs. Rowland was a former public school teacher and had been separated from her husband several months. Funeral services for Mrs. Rowland will be held Saturday morning, Bryant and her older son survived her.

It was the second tragedy to stir this community within two days. Mrs. Lillie May Curtis was held here today on charges of murdering her six of her nine children at her pine woods farm home Wednesday night.

BERLIN, March 21.—(P)—Informed nazis here and in Vienna predicted today that the new reichstag of greater Germany would hold its first session in Vienna instead of Berlin to please the Austrians.

STATE PARKS

tors on a week-end some time ago. The 3,830-acre tract, with its swimming pool, fishing and camp grounds, opened last year.

Caddo Lake Park, largest of all with 35,432 acres, boats, overnight cabins and attractions for the angler. Located in Harrison county one mile west of Karnack on Highway 43, the park borders a lake separating Texas and Louisiana.

Boating is one of the numerous attractions at Dairfield Park in Morris county on Highway 49, while the Davis mountains Park, three miles west of Fort Davis, is popular because of its Indian village, where visitors may enjoy the convenience of modern apartments in the heart of Texas' biggest mountain range.

Camping, swimming and fishing are the main features for Parker Park visitors. The site embraces 1,496 acres and is located six miles north of Groesbeck on Highway 14 in Limestone county.

Goose Island Park, 12 miles northeast of Rockport on Highway 35, is the only state park on the Gulf coast. Fishing, swimming and camping occupy visitors. The same diversions apply to Garner Park in Uvalde county, 26 miles north of the city of Uvalde on Highway 83.

West Texas outdoor enthusiasts will flock to Lake Abilene Park in Taylor county near Buffalo Gap on Highway 158, while those in the heart of state will flock to the heart of Lake Brownwood Park's cabins. The latter is 24 miles northwest of Brownwood on a county road.

One of the best in the opinion of the officials is Lake Corpus Christi Park, 12,831 acres rambling over Jim Wells, Live Oak and San Patricio counties. The entrance is on U. S. 96 four miles southwest of Mathis.

McKenzie Park at Lubbock has one of the finest swimming pools and is looked upon by the board as something of a model for new state parks. In Bogue county three miles southwest of Meridian is Meridian Park, regarded by experts as an angler's paradise.

Wild flowers and a great variety of shrubs and grasses attract naturalists to Palmetto Park's semi-swamp regions, 12 miles northwest of Gonzales on Highway 29, while Mother Neff Park in Cory county, eight miles southwest of McGregor and widely known as a Baptist church meeting ground, is ideal for camping and fishing.

The board is impounding a lake at Tyler Park in Smith county where 985 acres afford ample space for hikes and horseback tours.

Palo Duro Canyon, where an entrance fee is charged, is a gap in the earth's surface similar to but smaller than Grand Canyon. Lawson says the same variegated colors are to be seen in the colored Colorado Canyon bounds. It may be reached on Highway 217, 12 miles east of Canyon.

Other state parks where the city-dweller may dispose himself include Balmorhea, four miles southwest of the city of Balmorhea on U. S. Highway 290; Bonham, 3 1/2 miles southeast of Bonham on Highway 227; Big Spring, two miles south of Big Spring on U. S. Highway 87, and Blanco, in the city of Blanco on U. S. Highway 281.

The state owns many other areas which have not yet been developed properly for Park use.

Fire Threatened Sun Pressroom Early Saturday

All of the pressroom equipment and a portion of the Daily Sun building was threatened by fire shortly before 9 o'clock Saturday morning when gasoline used for cleaning rollers became ignited in some unknown manner.

Truly Etheridge and Gola Gregory, members of the press crew, narrowly escaped serious burns. Hand extinguishers aided in holding the flames in check until the sprinkler system protecting the entire building started into action and extinguished the fire.

Full equipment of the Corsicana fire department answered the precautionary alarm in record time, but was not needed.

Considerable damage resulted to the big press upon which the Daily Sun and Semi-Weekly Light are printed, principally from water. An extra crew of men were put to work immediately removing water from the equipment, in order to be ready for the daily edition of the paper at the regular hour.

COTTON QUOTAS FOR TEXAS COUNTIES ARE RECEIVED BY AAA

NAVARRO COUNTY HAS A QUOTA ALLOTMENT OF 167,519 ACRES

Navarro county's cotton quota for 1938 is 167,519 acres, according to an official announcement from the state headquarters at College Station.

H. C. Robinson, county agent, estimated this figure was between 35 and 40 per cent of the cultivated lands. The soil depleting acreage has not been received here.

County Agent Robinson estimated that the acreage in Navarro county in 1937 devoted to cotton was approximately 225,000 acres. The 1938 quota is about a 40 per cent reduction from the old base.

In the event that more acreage than allotted to the farm is planted in cotton, a tax of 2 cents per pound on that product on the excess will be charged by the government.

In soil building and conserving acreage, sweet sorghums, Sudan, and other crops, are to be planted under green are allowed, along with the sowing for permanent pastures. In the neutral acreage, idle land is counted along with grazing, or not harvesting or red top cane, peas, millet, oats, Sudan and hays.

The quotas for corn, oats and other grain crops have not been received, the county agent reported.

WAR OR PEACE?

By The AP Feature Service
DIPLOMATS scurry between home capitals and foreign chancelleries as Europe totters again between peace and war. But the diplomats

With These 6 Men Rests The Answer
are only errand boys. Behind them are the men who pull the strings. Here are the string pullers, plus one true diplomat of unusual prestige.

Neville Chamberlain

At age of 69 last year, he did what neither his famed father Joseph nor famed brother Austen achieved—he became Britain's premier. Through even in his hobbies—bird study, orchid raising and fishing—he was known as a human adding machine. Spare and austere, he has developed into a compelling orator. Forcing through a $7,500,000,000 rearmament program, he has insisted nevertheless on peace talks.

Eduard Benes

He first became a known mass of politics and diplomacy by helping establish Czechoslovakia in 1918. Now as its president still, the brilliant negotiator, before the war, Benes began working with Thomas G. Masaryk to separate the Czechs from Austria-Hungary. He was father of the Little Entente, active in League of Nations. Framed the pact with France on which Czechoslovakia now relies. At 53, calls himself a "realistic idealist."

Leon Blum

A cultured, wealthy Jew, he is back at helm in France after fall of another cabinet. In issue of the franc. He has been a socialist deputy and champion of peace since the war. As premier in 1936 he won fight to keep France out of Spanish war. As chief of a popular front coalition, he had to be an acute political strategist. At 66 he still is a penetrating logician, keen debater, aggressive leader. Blum gives his orders through Foreign Minister Joseph Paul-Boncour.

Maxim M. Litvinoff

Once a caustic-tongued "old communist" who plotted revolution against the czar. Now at 61, jovial, urbane, tolerant and a familiar figure at Geneva. Was Soviet Russia's first ambassador to America. As representative of a great military power, he caused sensation at 1927 disarmament by proposing absolute disarmament. As commissar of foreign affairs, he has pushed non-aggression pacts in economic as well as political fields.

Benito Mussolini

Onetime socialist, onetime beggar in Switzerland, Il Duce at 54 still addresses himself to youth. He is frankly theatrical, makes swift decisions, takes swift actions. Since school days a radical political worker. Wounded in World War. Has the last word on Italy's foreign as well as domestic matters. Never in repose mentally, rarely physically, he whips up fascist enthusiasm with dreams of empire, rules Italy by sheer personality.

Adolf Hitler

Austrian by birth, paper-hanger by trade, admirer of Mussolini by habit. Like Mussolini, served in World War as a corporal. After the abortive Munich pact of 1932, went to jail 9 months, wrote the biography that has been a guide to his aspirations. Frugal personally. A dynamic speaker, he appeals to German discipline, German yearning for racial greatness, German resentment against war guilt charges.

Corn and Wheat Plantings to Be Slightly Less

WASHINGTON, March 18.—(P)—The agriculture department said today farmers' reports on intentions to plant this year indicated 94,555,000 acres to corn and 22,282,000 acres to spring wheat.

The corn acreage would be 2 per cent smaller than planted last year; the spring wheat acreage 6.2 per cent smaller.

Corn was planted on 96,483,000 acres last year and production was 2,644,995,000 bushels, while in the drought year of 1937 the plantings were on 100,599,000 acres and production 1,507,089,000 bushels.

Spring wheat plantings last year were on 23,750,000 acres and production 188,810,000 bushels. In 1937 plantings were on 23,950,000 acres and production 106,892,000 bushels.

Official government reports, based on data from a survey of farmers, showed that the acreage planted last year was slightly less than in 1937.

One year ago today the world's child disaster broke the world's heart.

The London Consolidated school deep in a cluster of oil derricks that made it the world's richest rural school—crumbled beneath a gas explosion.

Incredible, mumbled the world, silent, except for hoarse screams of foremen, one thousand workmen, most of them fathers, dug with raw, bloodied hands through wreckage that held their children. Acetylene torches slicing through steel cast a blue-glow light on a tragic nightmare.

To a skating rink at nearby Overton trucks, ambulances and private cars took 136 children. There, stretched on the floor under crimson-tinted sheets, they lay for identification. Relatives started there, youngsters ruined on the debris schoolyard. Numb, blinded mothers and grimy old field workers stumbled towards the tomb of 297 students and instructors.

One year ago today its worst child disaster broke the world's heart.
